Whether your child has been learning the recorder, violin, clarinet or tabla, St Mark's Everything Band is a great way for them to enjoy playing music with others. Lead by expert Ealing Music Service teachers, St Mark's Everything Band and its friendly and relaxed atmosphere will not only boost your child's musical confidence, but allow them to learn new repertoire and make friends from other local schools. Ensemble playing is an essential part of learning to play a musical instrument; helping with different technical and musical aspects of instrumental playing as well as being a great opportunity to meet other musicians.

Applications must be made online at www.ealingmusicservice.com/everything-band
