

Peer Observation Form for Instrumental & Voice Teachers
Name of observer:	Date of observation:
School:	Time:
Name of Teacher Observed:	Name of other adults present:
Context of observation:

The purpose of peer observation is to provide an opportunity to observe a range of teaching and learning strategies which can support and enhance teachers' own practice. It is not intended to be judgemental but more to identify how different learners learn, effective teaching and learning strategies and enable teachers to reflect on their own teaching practice. It is also beneficial to have a conversation with the teacher being observed to better understand their methods and approach.
