Planning and organising is well under way for our biggest and best event to date – EMStival 2020! Gunnersbury Park opens its gates to Ealing Schools at 9am on Friday 10th July 2020 to give children and staff an exciting cultural & musical experience! Pupils and

Music For Youth Regional Festival

EMS are proud to be hosting a 2020 regional festival for Music for Youth in partnership with Harrow Music Service. The festival will take place on Wednesday 18th March 2020 @ The Ealing Christian Centre, Northfields. The day will be split into 4 viewing sessions, which family and friends are warmly invited to attend. Caroline Swan, EMS Ensemble Development Leader, said "We are very much looking forward to a jam-packed day of musical talent and are extremely delighted that 18 groups from Ealing borough schools will be participating in the festival!".

NEW EMS website coming soon!

Our brand new website will launch this Spring term. EMS Projects and Media Officer, Roger O'Grady-Walsh, who is creating and designing the new website said "It's been a really rewarding project to work on and I hope that pupils, parents and schools will find the new website an exciting resource to learn more about the services and events we have on offer!".

ENCORE

"Encore", now in its 4th year, is a Secondary Music Competition like no other; an opportunity for performers from secondary schools to showcase their musical ability and in the process deliver a performance that could earn their school music department up to £500 Cash!

The event will be held at Greenford Hall on the 11th March 2020 @ 7:30pm. Tickets will be available for the 500 seater auditorium showcase so that friends and family can come along to offer their support. The concert will also be streamed LIVE on our Facebook page, so that the whole school can tune in and cheer the performers on from home! www.Facebook.com/WeAreEMS

Westfield Music Competition – Congratulations!

Congratulations to the St Vincent’s Catholic Primary School KS2 Choir for their excellent performance at the Westfield Music Competition. The Choir gained 2nd place, winning £200 for the school and gained 1st place previously, winning £1000. Congratulations to all the pupils, Music Coordinator, Linda Anagnostopoulou, and all the team for their hard work. If you are inspired by this success story and interested in starting singing provision at your school, please get in touch with EMS.

World Music Festival 2020

The ever popular World Music Festival is returning for its 12th year! Bringing a taste of music from around the world to Ealing schools, the 2020 festival offers workshops spanning a large variety of sounds and styles including; Brazilian Samba, Japanese Taiko, African Djembe, Steelpan, Junk Percussion, Indonesian Gamelan and Human Beatbox! WMF runs in the weeks before and after the Easter break, with workshops from 23rd March to 3rd April and 20th–24th April. Workshops cost £200 per session. EMS Member Schools can gain FREE access to a workshop as one of your FREE activity options.

Stop Press! This year’s programme of workshops has almost sold out but there is room to add some extra dates, so if you are interested in booking one or more visits for your school, contact EMS today!
